COMPLY OR NO ZONING!

Callans Get Edict On Road Delay

Eleventh-hour decision by the city council Monday night called for immediate action by Callan Company to end its delay of filing final maps and conveying its controversial portion of old Edgemar road to the city.

Reluctance by the Callans to complete the agreement on their chunk of the road is blocking plans for the sorely needed M. Pauline Brown School in St. Francis Heights and has incurred the mounting wrath of residents of McKeon Company's fast-jelling subdivision off Eastmoor avenue. The high school district also is hot under the collar due to the Callan delay, hindering the completion of Eastmoor avenue from Junipero Serra to Westmoor avenue ending at Skyline boulevard.

Elementary school administrators and trustees met again with the council Monday to stress the urgency of action against the Callans. Tom Noonan said a delay of two more weeks would cost the school district an extra $15,000 and dangerously delay construction and opening of the school in September next year. Supt. H. Z. Weibel and the board backed this with letters from the state which controls funds for the long-approved plant.

Crux of the stalemate is that Callan refuses to stick to his road realignment commitments as designated by him when he filed a tentative map and was granted three-way zoning on the triangular 21-acre parcel last year.

The council feels Callan is committed to this route, but fear the builder will continue to press for another course, possibly to expand his intended shopping center and force the school district to alter its plans for the 500-student school.

Only link Eastmoor traffic has to Westmoor avenue, east to west, is through the middle of the school site. Callan's hesitation has blocked the district

GLOE GRANTED LIBRARY PACT BY 4-1 VOTE

A 4-1 council vote Monday night gave Daly City resident John W. Gloe, 220 Skyline drive, the architectural assignment on the $155,000 Westlake Library. His fee will be 7 per cent of the total expenditure.

The verdict, with only Councilman Joseph Verducci voting "no", expedited the city's timetable for the much-needed facility on Southgate avenue. Public Works Director Otis Calhoun estimated it would take Gloe about two months to finalize his plans and actual construction would last four months—thus an October completion date.

Gloe's appointment found the council majority reversing the Library Commission's recommendations on the architect the

Possible 'Dope Kit' Found On Teenager Here

A possible "main-line" dope kit was found on the person of a 17-year-old who was apprehended for loitering after curfew with two companions on the corner of Los Olivos and Mission streets Saturday night.

Police Officer Frank Murray held the boy who had possession of the suspicious articles for further investigation, while the other two were released.

A hypodermic syringe, a needle, two wads of cotton, a book of matches and a spoon, bent and burned on the bottom, made up the so called "kit."

According to the police report the boy said that he had stolen the syringe and needle last Thursday from Kaiser Permanente Hospital in South San Francisco.

"Then," he continued, "I left it at home until tonight when I boiled some water to test it before bringing it out to sell it."

When asked whom he expected to purchase it, he answered that he didn't know. Police felt his story to be hastily concocted and untrue. They noted that he continuously said "I am going to go this ride alone."

They placed the boy in Hillcrest Juvenile Home and kept the articles for further investigation and lab analysis.

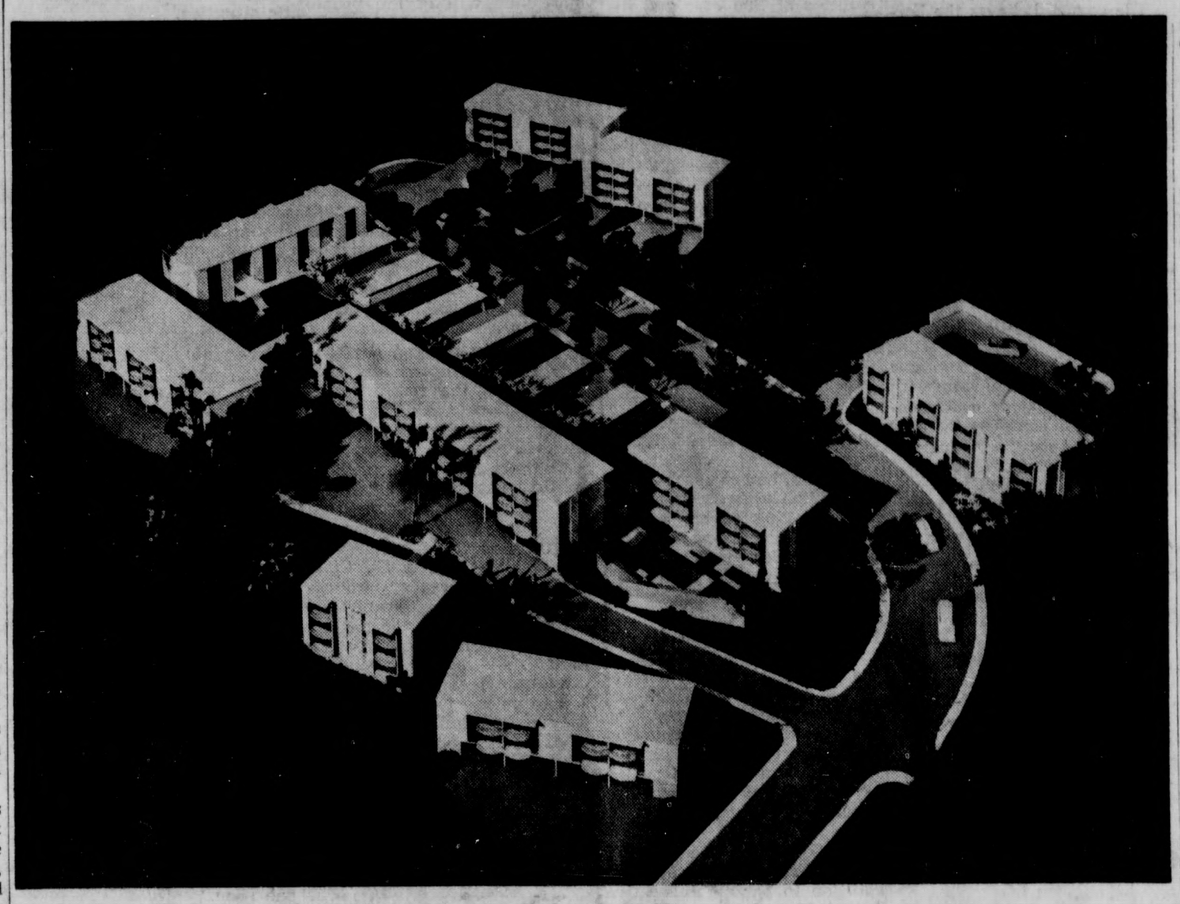
City Proclamations Ask Public Respect, Cooperation On Law

Appointed mayor Monday, Edward J. Dennis quickly inked two proclamations in keeping with state and national observances.

This Friday, May 1, will be marked as "Law Day U.S.A." calling attention, Dennis said, to the contrast between government under law in this country and government by force behind the Soviet Iron Curtain.

Second proclamation is for "Burglary Prevention Week," May 3 through 9. The mayor urges citizens to cooperate fully with police in precautionary measures to prevent this crime.

HOMEOWNERS 'BURN' AS CITY OK'S CALLAN APTS.



COUNCIL MAJORITY UNDER FIRE

DeBernardi, Verducci Lose Fight To Deny Rezoning On Hillside

"Voice of the people" lost out Monday night as a 3-2 split vote by the city council authorized rezoning for Callan Company's proposed $1.5 million garden apartments project and left an explosive throng of homeowners furious and fit to be tied.

A standing-room turnout of more than 200 residents, more than four-fifths of whom were united to fight the rezoning, marked the stormy debut of Edward J. Dennis as mayor.

Micheal DeBernardi, replaced as mayor, and Councilman Joseph Verducci were the "heroes" of the session, rallying to the will of the residents.

Dennis and Councilmen Bob St. Clair and Francis Pacelli stuck with the Callan side of the argument. Their votes sealed the verdict and sent the crowd home muttering "injustice" and "political folly."

Both sides were granted time, via Roberts Rules of Order, to plead their ideas. By far the most impressive effort was that of John McInerney of Belmont, spokesman for the 150 homeowners, who carefully described each factor against the rezoning and ended his appeal with the unanswered challenge that the Callans, through Attorney Joseph Gallagher of San Bruno, "failed to show the three essential prerequisites changing the zoning from residential to apartment units — necessity, convenience and general welfare."

DeBernardi literally brought down the house with heavy applause when, at the conclusion of the arguments from McInerney and Gallagher, he moved that the hearing be closed and that the rezoning be denied. Verducci seconded the motion.

Impact of this one-two punch led most observers to feel the tide would carry against the zoning. But Dennis, St. Clair and Pacelli quickly voted down the motion for denial. St. Clair thereupon moved that the city follow the unanimous recommendation of the planning commission and the second adjusted report of the city-hired planning consultants, Hahn, Wise & Barber, and grant the rezoning.

Dennis, answering the charge that the apartment zoning was impractical for the residential area, reminded that

DENNIS' DEBUT: 'NO FREEWAY IN WESTLAKE'

Edward J. Dennis presided as mayor Monday night as he was rotated to the city council chairmanship succeeding Micheal DeBernardi.

New assistant mayor is Councilman Francis Pacelli, 117 Windsor drive.

Dennis, of 156 Mateo avenue, was brief in his address to the audience on his appointment.

Reminding that he had lived here "most of my life," the union president declared he would continue to work with fellow councilmen for the progress of Daly City.

He cited his part in the traffic improvements on Mission street (car tracks removal) and said he would continue to fight "any freeway through Westlake" and "keep DC parking meters at 5 cents and not 10 cents as in San Francisco."

DeBernardi, 172 East Vista avenue, declared it was a pleasure to serve as mayor and that he would work to fulfill his objectives as pledged to the people.

Judge Blum To Hear Penny In Superior Court

Penny Bjorkland, Daly City's confessed "urge" killer, will be arraigned before Judge Frank Blum, former city attorney here, at 1:30 p.m. next Monday in Redwood City's Superior Court.

Before then, said Sheriff Earl B. Whitmore, her attorney Joseph A. Murray plans to have her undergo psychiatric examinations.

Whitmore said the girl has in no way changed her story about the 18-slug fusillade into August Norry due to an urge to use him for a human target.

However, the sheriff noted, despite her lack of remorse, the strain of imprisonment is telling on her. This was especially noticeable this week when she 'Sectional' Race For Elementary Trustee Posts?

A "sectional" battle could be shaping up among five candidates for the two Jefferson Elementary District trustee seats in the May 19 election.

Whether Westlake and the older section of town will split in the decisions is questionable, however.

From Westlake are Serve-Our-Schools Committee-recommended hopefuls, O. Wayne Douglas, 18 Crestwood drive, and Marvin Nathan, 61 Crestwood drive.

East-side candidates are incumbent chairman Joseph Lewkowitz, 501 Vista Grande avenue; John Evangelisti, 523 Wyandotte avenue, and Donald Lesher, 417 Castle street.

Evangelisti reportedly is running as an independent. Teamed are Lewkowitz-Lesher and Nathan-Douglas.

CHAMBER WILL SELECT, FETE MARRIED PAIR

Daly City's Chamber of Commerce is joining with similar units throughout the county in picking couples who have been married 25 years to be honored at the silver anniversary of the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta this summer.

According to Fred Martin, spokesman and member of the local chamber, Daly City will select a married pair who have lived here a long time and who have contributed to their community.

The couples selected by each of the 15 Peninsula cities will be feted by their chambers and also honored at the Fair on the day their cities are featured in the activities.

LAST DITCH CONCESSION

Unit 9 Residents Granted New Tests For Reservoir Site

Dead-serious homeowners in Westlake Unit 9, backed by Westlake Improvement Association to the hilt, gained a foothold in their relocation-of-the-reservoir request Monday night as the city council approved an outlay of $1500 for soils tests on a citizen-suggested new site some 250 feet due south of the reservoir's adopted location off Skyline drive.

Whether the council will change the site of the giant prestressed concrete tank—if the soil tests prove the suggested site is sound—is a moot point.

Via motion of Councilman Francis Pacelli, should the soil tests prove negative (the site is not feasible safety-wise), the city will stand pat on its present site for the sixth city reservoir. Plans for this structure, which will serve parts of St. Francis Heights, portions of Westlake Units 9 and 10, and all of Unit 11, were accepted by the city back in 1956.

Lt. Col. Rufus McCracken, spokesman for the Unit 9 protestants, and their attorney (also representing the association), Donald King, were informed by the council that the special soils tests were authorized by the council as a final step.

FURIOUS protests bombarded the council Monday night when its 3-2 vote granted Callan Company rezoning of 3.6 hillside acres north of Vista Grande School and east of Wyandotte avenue for the $1.5 million apartment project, depicted by scale model above. Homeowners in the area, 150-strong, lashed the council majority for the move. Tom Callan Jr. says the 120-unit (8 buildings) development, to be called the Lakeview Apartments, should be completed in 14 months.

TAX INCREASE ONLY WAY OUT?

High School District Faces Financial Crisis

Deficit spending faces Jefferson High School District, according to a report by Edward Morgan, superintendent of schools, which he presented at the regular board meeting Monday night.

"If," said Morgan, "all present factors remain unchanged, we could maintain a balanced budget."

However, he went on to point out, it is not likely that next year's expenditures will remain at the same level which they have presently maintained.

"It is expected that they will be higher by about $100,000 and it is not probable that any part of that extra load will be forthcoming in the district."

A taste of this possible cost rise was given to the board last night when the District Teachers Association presented a request for a higher salary schedule.

This was based on a report given by Benjamin F. Snyder, their finance committee chairman. In it, Snyder showed that Jefferson presently lags behind San Mateo, Sequoia, South San Francisco and San Francisco in salary schedules.

He further bolstered his arguments by noting that cost of living in this area has outrun a teacher's income to the extent that only the most highly paid of them would be permitted to buy a home in Daly City.

He asked that the minimum be increased from the present $4400 to $4750 and the maximum from $8200 to $8990. Further, under this plan, the present low increment of $150 would be boosted to $170 per year, and this $20 increase would apply uniformly throughout the salary scales so that the high side would rise from $250 to $270.

Another suggestion asked for the addition of one pay scale for teachers with a Bachelor of Arts degree who have 75 units or more of extra college credits. This will presently cost the district $3000.

Total cost of the entire program would be about $76,240 during the next school year.

Board reaction to the proposals was mixed. Chairman Elio Fontana commended the committee on the reasonableness of its demands and noted that, if met, they would place Jefferson at the bottom of the group which was used for comparative purposes.

Mrs. Ann Eason thought that the matter needed further consideration while Lyal Ingersoll voiced some opposition to the proposals. Morgan was asked for his opinion and he replied by stating that he felt the requests to be in line and that they should be met.

Flaming Roast Is Seasoned By Firemen

Daly City firemen garnished a flaming roast with refined baking powder at the home of Mrs. Herbert Zelinsky, 91 Eastgate drive, Tuesday evening.

Operation "dinner save" took approximately ten minutes of their time after the housewife called to report an oven fire.

They found a burning roast, turned off the gas and applied the dry powder extinguisher. Wonder how it tasted after that?

OPEN HOUSE ACTIVITIES

City Salutes 10,000 Public School Students, Their Teachers, Progress

By CON REGAN

Honors are now being paid to nearly 10,000 students and teachers during Daly City's "Public Schools Week" which, by an official proclamation of the mayor, began April 27th and ends Friday.

This is the event's fortieth annual celebration. Theme for the year is the community's responsibility to help its youth prepare for a participating role in the citizenship of tomorrow.

Residents here will have a chance to visit all 16 of the Jefferson Elementary and High School districts' public schools.

They can talk with teachers and officials about the critical problems encountered in this area. Most of these revolve about overcrowding which results from a shortage of instructors and classrooms.

On a more personal plane, parents can meet with teachers to discuss ways and means of cooperation in building better educational standards.

Many student entertainments and displays will be produced throughout the week to dramatically demonstrate some of the schools' numerous achievements.

Visitors can tour classrooms, see art, science, vocational, homemaking and social studies projects which have been specially prepared.

Pride can be taken in the knowledge that both the elementary and the high school districts have striven hard, in

Architect Angus McSweeney is designing all three and construction begins this June on a six-months completion deadline.

Unidentified Man Scares Jeff Girl On Way To School

A Jefferson High girl reported to police here that she is being molested on her way to school every morning.

She said that for more than the past month a man has parked his black car in front of 6789 Mission street and offered her a ride to school when she passes that point at 7 a.m. each day.

Tuesday morning he finally frightened her to the extent that she reported the incident to school officials when he said "You are going to have to let me drive you to school some morning. How about today?"

Homeowners Win Survey On New Reservoir Site

Calhoun, citing the urgency of speeding the reservoir, reminded that currently the city has been forced to supplement its storage supply by use of San Francisco water and "any delay in construction of the reservoir will only increase the need for it."

Calhoun, submitting a careful report on recent talks with the homeowners, WIA, Doelger officials, and soils engineers, hinted relocation of the reservoir was an unlikely possibility.

He said the soils engineers who tested the area and recommended the site three years ago "would be unalterably opposed" to moving the reservoir any closer to the ocean (westerly) than its present location.

As a compromise, Calhoun suggested lowering the reservoir three feet and having Doelger Company reduce its proposed grade on the extension of Skyline drive in Unit 11. These steps, he maintained, would lessen the possibility of water from leaks flowing onto the property of residents now in the area and divert any such water to the south and west of the site.

Calhoun said the Doelger firm had agreed to alter the grade (from 4 per cent uphill to a downhill slope) and that lowering the reservoir would increase the cost of the project about $3000.

The works director declared that the city has no alternative —in view of the critical need for the reservoir—than to proceed with the adopted site, but he reasoned that lowering the reservoir and changing the flow by grading would reduce the hazards feared by the Unit 9 residents.

Attorney King got a negative reply when he asked if the city had made soil tests south and southwest of the present reservoir site. The lawyer said the nominal fee for the tests wasn't much in view of the safety factor which prompted the public protest.

McCracken, who still may play a "trump card" in the form of an injunction to stop city plans for the present site, was asked by the council to specify his group's "preferred location" for the reservoir so that the city would be sure the new soil tests would be accurate—and conclusive.

CALLAN GETS EDICT ON ROAD DELAY

from completing grading on the school site and could seriously delay construction.

St. Francis residents demand immediate compliance by the Callans due to the near impassible, noisy and dusty status of the school-splitting old road.

The elementary school board has asked the council to deny Callan's latest realignment plan, claiming the move would reduce state-recommended acreage on the school site and force relocation of the building.

To speed construction, the district has proposed a temporary road on the southwest tip of the 7.7 acre school site, to be built at no cost to the city. This measure would expedite the school and not hinder traffic, they claim.

The council believes the burden now rests entirely with the Callans, who, by agreement when the zoning was passed, guaranteed they would realign the road as per the first map, install curbs, gutters, sidewalks and electroliers.

The Callan firm has R-1 (homes), R-3 (apartments) and C-1 (retail stores) zoning in the 21-acre parcel.

Insiders feel the builder will try to enlarge his proposed shopping center, thus reducing, if not eliminating, his plans for residences.

Should the Callans continue to delay their commitment with the city, the latter could condemn land to complete the road and also nullify the zoning and return it to unclassified.

Westlake Association Meeting Next Monday

Monthly meeting of Westlake Improvement Association will be held next Monday night at 95 South Mayfair, starting at 8 o'clock, according to Emory Schoolcraft, chairman of the board of directors.

All Westlake homeowners are encouraged to attend the session.

CITY SALUTES PUBLIC SCHOOL KIDS, TEACHERS

cooperation with the institutions contained within them, to bring the best in equipment, recreational facilities and teaching to this area.

Presently, Daly City is one of the top paying districts in California. This has induced a group of instructors to work here who have unusually high qualifications.

In both the elementary and high schools they have an average age of 35 and, on the elementary level, about five years of college while the upper grade teachers have seven years.

Despite the general youthfulness of the staff, overall teaching experience on both levels amounts to nearly 10 years.

Most of these instructors have been educated in California, many of them in the Bay Area colleges of San Jose and San Francisco State.

Under their energetic direction, new programs are developing and existing activities are being strengthened.

For instance, 60 per cent of the student body at Westmoor High is now engaged in a wide range of after-chool activities. These run the gamut from sports to science, language and industrial clubs. Transportation problems are solved by running special late afternoon busses.

Another example is found at Jefferson High. School musical director Richard Larsen has beefed up an ailing 18-piece band to a smartly uniformed, well-trained marching outfit of 50 students in his brief two-year tenure.

Further, he has nearly quadrupled the orchestra membership, bringing it from seven to 27 players and doubled the dance band strength by adding six musicians for a total of 12.

Many of the changes which time and an exploding population have wrought on the district can best be seen through the eyes of Miss Marjorie Tobias and Mrs. Ethel Hahn, the two principals who have given many years of dedicated service to the elementary district.

Mrs. Hahn began teaching here in 1918 at Woodrow Wilson School and became its principal in 1932. Originally (as throughout the district) she was required to teach, in addition to her administrative duties. Now she, along with allother principals, is permitted to devote full time to them.

Mrs. Hahn has seen her school grow from 230 to 650 children. She has begun classes for the mentally retarded and the blind, of which there are only two others in the county.

Mrs. Tobias was hired here as a teaching principal in 1935. Because she accrued experience which has given her a fine ability in administrative and children's school problems, she has served for the past seven years as the district's chief trouble shooter.

In that time she has faced the difficult, touchy task of opening five new schools and her success has drawn admiring praise from the central office and district Superintendent H. Z. Weibel.

Both teachers commented that the greatest pleasure which they have derived from their fruitful service has been "working with the wonderful children of Daly City."

GLOE GRANTED LIBRARY PACT BY 4-1 VOTE

second consecutive time. This is the reason, according to Verducci, he balloted against selection of Gloe.

Last October, the Library Commission and city staff interviewed three men for the job. City Manager George Watts rated Gordon Phillips of San Rafael as his top choice, while the commission chose veteran SF architect Francis J. McCarthy. The council then went for McCarthy.

A rift subsequently developed between the city administration and McCarthy over payment of fees and contract terms. This resulted in the council earlier this month nixing its pact with McCarthy and asking for a new architect—much to the displeasure of the library board which criticized Watts, in particular, for an "arbitrary stand" against McCarthy.

The council last week asked for the commission's new preference on an architect. The latter group then unanimously endorsed Phillips as the best qualified in their opinion. But the city manager recommended Gloe—who was not among the original three architects interviewed last fall—and all the councilmen except Verducci went along with Watt's choice.

Watt's letter to the council backing Gloe cited the Westlaker for his attitude, qualifications and fee of 7 per cent. McCarthy had asked 8 per cent and Phillips likewise.

Other architects who sought the contract during the long-delayed interlude were Louis Baldini and Angus McSweeney.

Watts asked that McSweeney should not be considered during the second deliberation by the council since Angus was not among the three architects first called in. But neither was Gloe, Verducci pointed out.

A Navy-built American science base at the geographic South Pole was dedicated by proxy from an airbase 730 miles to the north.

HOMEOWNERS 'BURN' OVER CALLAN ZONING

the planning commission and the survey firm both agreed the development would be beneficial and not injurious to the city, in general, and the Gambetta - Wyandotte street area in particular. The new mayor referred to other "important" apartment projects in the city, citing Westlake, School street and on Hillside boulevard.

"These apartment dwellers," Dennis told the newspaper, "are usually either young adults or older couples, with few children, and stable, good residents."

"As for access problems and crowded school conditions," he went on, "I can't see many obstacles in this case."

Verducci, declaring that the principle backing his opposition to the rezoning involved both "the will of the people and the law," agreed with the homeowners that the move constituted spot zoning.

He further hinted that the council majority apparently were involved in a bit of "collusion" when he stated: "I guess those who pay the fiddler can call the tune."

His reference allegedly was to the fact that the Hahn-Wise-Barber firm, which originally termed the rezoning unwise from a planning sense in a letter to the council, reversed its stand in a second report.

McInerney pointed out that this second letter did not recommend the rezoning. Instead, he said the survey firm, which didn't even inspect the affected area in making its first report, said the rezoning would be feasible (in the second letter) only under certain conditions—mutual agreements with the city.

Both Pacelli and St. Clair retorted Verducci's implications by declaring that "fraudulent" motives by the council majority in the decision were absurd.

McInerney earlier had scored Callan on the fact that "as an experienced builder he knew what he was buying the land for." The spokesman added that the land in question, zoned for homes in an entirely residential neighborhood, could be developed for homes.

"Hillside home developments, though costly, have been very successful in other communities," McInerney said, citing Linda Mar, Mill Valley and other Bay Area locales.

Worried about cost of improvements in the area—among a long list of other objections, the protesting throng heard Callan declare that his firm would foot all the expenses and "homeowners in no way will be involved."

Young Callan said the 3.6 acres project will feature "high quality apartments . . . the first of their type (garden style) in this area." Planned are eight buildings housing 120 units (including one and two bedrooms), featuring a few choice luxury penthouses, possible swimming pools, and off-street, carport parking facilities.

The builder estimated the Lakeview development would be completed in 14 months. Date when construction will begin was not disclosed.

Judge Blum To Hear Penny In Superior Court

voiced objection to sharing day-room facilities with a Negro woman.

As a precautionary measure, the sheriff said, all articles with which she could inflict harm on herself were removed from her cell. "But," he said, "exaggeration has been used in the reports which represent her as having thrown hysterical tantrums."

She has a tendency toward a "wise guy" attitude, but she is showing improvement as she learns that life in jail is not quite what she thought it was "cracked up" to be, Whitmore declared.

High School District Faces Financial Crisis

Ingersoll then made a motion to table the matter until trustee Raymond Whitney's presence would make a full board.

If accepted, the program would immediately deplete the district's expected reserve fund of $956,878 to $880,638. This money has been slowly accumulated over the years and, says Morgan, it will now have to be used, unless unforseen circumstances occur, to cover the district's red ink outlay.

This fund will probably be exhausted by 1963. Then the people of Daly City will be faced with a basic decision about what they choose to do in regard to their high school problem.

In a more optimistic vein, Morgan pointed to several possibilities which might temporarily forestall or ease this drastic situation.

He noted that there is some possibility of avoiding deficit expenditures this year if Governor Brown's recommended bills for educational financing in California are passed.

Also, a change in our present $1.35 tax rate, the lowest in the county, to a higher figure would ease or, perhaps, nullify the situation.

"It should be noted," Morgan said, "that a bedroom community such as ours is, unfortunately, unable to pull its own educational weight when it has entered into such a drastic population expansion.

"Our present tax rate has remained unchanged since 1952, we have no industry to draw on for funds, therefore it is inevitable that we will soon find ourselves without funds unless something in the present situation is rectified."

In other important action, purchase of furniture for nine new classrooms at Westmoor was authorized along with the acquisition of equipment for the school.

These items are being paid for with $21,000 from the bond fund.

Authorization was given to the architectural firm of Mario Ciampi to take steps for the renovation or new construction of those portions of Jefferson High which do not meet earthquake standards. Included in this is the main building and one shop.

Purchase of the Linda Mar site was completed with the payment of $172,500 to Picardo for 35 acres and $33,000 to Higgins for nine and one-half acres.

Morgan noted that of the total 45 acres, about 40 will be usable.

The back end of the Westmoor High school grounds designated for a park was leased to the city for a period of fifty years. This is a joint development scheme which will result in the building of such things as tennis and handball courts there with both the district and the city paying fifty per cent of the costs incurred.

In that way these facilities will be open to both students and the public.

Finally, it was decided that Ingersoll would give diplomas at Jefferson this year and Whitney at Westmoor, from which the latter's daughter will graduate this spring.

Surprising Prowler Apprehended By 3 Daly City Police

Suspicious police converged on Luella Richter's residence at 332 Northgate avenue following a call from her in which she reported a prowler in her garage.

Officers James Sunderland, Jim Bergstrom and David Hansen arrived on the scene with hopes of catching the mysterious man who has been operating as a peeping tom and indecently exposing himself to women in this area the past several weeks.

Cautiously, they approached the house and noted noises coming from the garage area.

A search seemed to reveal nothing, although the sounds continued. It was then decided that only one hiding place was left for the prowler—under the house.

A hands and knees investigation finally produced the offender. A very large cat was apprehended by the three officers. They released him without charge.

MASKED BANDIT USES GUN TO STEAL $1400

A masked bandit walked into the Public Wholesale House, 2899 Junipero Serra boulevard, and pulled a gun on the owner and three customers before walking out with $1400 last Wednesday night

At the check stand, proprietor Morris Katz was waiting on Marie Distefano, Lalleta Opatz and Otey Cannon, all of San Francisco, when a man entered with a nylon stocking drawn loosely over his face.

Nervously, he told the four, "put up your hands this is a holdup!"

According to investigating Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage the masked man gave Katz a bag, telling him to fill it from the cash register.

After its return he next ordered Katz to light a cigarette for him. He took a few drags and then said, "if you want to live, wait four minutes before you do anything!"

Leveling his .22 caliber revolver at the four helpless people, he backed out of the store and walked away.

He was described as being slightly over six feet tall, weighing about 180 pounds, 25 to 30 years old, wearing a green corduroy jacket and dark gray pants.

In 1624 Cornelius Von Drebbel, a Hollander, invented the first submarine. It was oar propelled and capable of submerging to 15 feet.

'SILENCE' DOESN'T HELP POLICE

Daly City police, alarmed by the increased frequency of indecent exposure cases, need the full cooperation of the community to meet and help eliminate the problem.

Last week, for instance, one out-of-town young husband confessed at least 10 episodes during the early evening hours. A couple of other reports on similar behavior and "obscene" phone calls came out of Westlake.

In each case, police were able to start investigating immediately because the victims were prompt in notifying authorities. But our lawmen admit that for each incident reported, four or five others are never disclosed due to the "embarassment" some feel in giving all the sordid details.

This lack of quick notification to police encourages the characters and "weird ones" to continue their psychopathic acts. Once an area is on the lookout for these suspects, they usually refrain from their routine or commit their offenses elsewhere.

Women and innocent children—who remember misconduct are affected most.

It would be well to weigh the consequences of apathetic attitudes and silence in cases of this nature.

YOUR CITY SALES TAX AND WHAT IT DOES FOR YOU

(Fourth in a series of articles submitted for publication by members of the City Council of Daly City.)

City and county officials throughout the Peninsula await with keen interest the outcome of Daly City's special election May 19 on the sales tax issue. Publicly, they say they want a sampling of voter opinion on a local sales tax, already adopted by 90 per cent of California's cities.

Privately, these officials earnestly hope Daly City will vote to retain its penny tax. They know how much revenue a sales tax can raise for the ever-increasing municipal services demanded by the public.

Just as important, they recognize the penny tax as the most effective means of bringing some relief to the overburdened property taxpayer.

Political considerations so far have prevented San Mateo County officials from endorsing the penny tax publicly. But they see it as a trend of the times and they want its benefits for their own communities. San Mateo County is the last hold-out against a county sales tax in the state. But three cities besides Daly City — Belmont, San Carlos and Menlo Park—have adopted a municipal sales tax.

All these points were explored by three Daly City councilmen before they voted approval of a penny sales tax in April, 1958. In addition, the council saw the tax as the quickest and least costly way of getting money to improve inadequate public buildings and services far behind the city's skyrocketing population.

After study, the council learned that the penny tax has worked well everywhere it has been tried; that it is a fair tax because it is borne partly by non-residents and least by the small wage earner.

Contrary to the fears of businessmen, a sales tax did not discourage sales in the California cities imposing it. Collection and administration costs of a sales tax also were found to be negligible.

To make sure that sales tax revenues would be used for the purposes originally intended, the council approved an ordinance providing:

That one half the amount collected goes into a fund for civic improvements. This fund cannot be spent on anything else — unless two-thirds of the voters say so.

That the other half goes into the general fund to make a reduction in the property tax possible.

A reduction of 58 cents on each $100 assessed valuation was made last year on every property tax bill. This meant a $25 saving to the average homeowner.

Total amount collected from the sales tax was $330,000.

Serious attention to Penny's statements is made by Richard Liberty, clerk of the court.

Verbal fireworks between builders Tom Callan Jr. and Chris McKeon last week at council study session was a corker.

The competition for DC's available land to the south is pretty fierce. But usually the big four — Doelger, McKeon, Callan and Lagomarsino negotiate with the council in gentlemanly fashion.

Once in a while, these gents quit the script and let loose with some ear-opening invectives. Against one another, of course.

The case prompted Sgt. David Hansen to remind that this serious maladjustment too often goes unreported to authorities, mainly because some women and children victimized by the perverts are too embarrassed to make any statements.

BOXER LEAVES DC OFFICER UNIMPRESSED

The boxing career of William J. Scully was abruptly interrupted by Daly City police officer Phillip LaBruzzo Tuesday afternoon.

An unidentified passing motorist told LaBruzzo that he wished to report a man standing in the street sparring with passing cars on the 7000 block of Mission street.

When the officer arrived, the man, perhaps feeling that he needed more training, was shadow boxing with a telephone pole.

Investigation disclosed that he was William J. Scully, address unknown, had alcohol on his breath and was in a dishevelled condition.

He was booked and his bail set at $25.

PETROCCHI POINTERS—

Chief's 'Burglary Prevention Week' Theme: Homeowners Should Be Wary

Police Chief Roland A. Petrocchi, concerned about house breaking, announced today that May 3 through 9 will be observed as "Burglary Prevention Week" in Daly City, as proclaimed by Mayor Edward Dennis.

This is not just another "week," emphasized the chief. It is being held in conjunction with a state-wide program by the Peace Officers' Association of California to educate the public on how they can help reduce burglary losses.

Petrocchi stated that burglary losses are "big business" for some people. During 1958, approximately 650,000 burglary offenses were reported across the country, or about 75 burglaries actually committed every hour, every day of the year! True, it's an alarming figure, but even more alarming is the fact that most of these burglaries could have been prevented if the public had taken just a little more interest and care in their personal property.

"People too often leave their homes for an evening, weekend, or vacation without a thought given to the precautions recommended by their police department. Windows are left open, keys left under the door mat or in the mail box, a completely dark house or even worse, lights are left burning 24 hours a day, all ear-marks that tell a burglar this place is a push-over."

The war against burglary is two-fold — the prevention of burglaries by homeowners before they occur, and the apprehension of burglars who dare commit the crime. Apprehension, of course, is the continuing job of the police department, but the primary responsibility for prevention must rest squarely upon the shoulders of the homeowner. Only with his full cooperation can this war against the ever-increasing burglary rate be successful.

School Winners Told In Legoin Essay Contest

Prize winners have been announced in the Americanism contest, sponsored by American Legion Post 410's Women's Auxiliary, by Mrs. Jean Chauses, chairman.

Best essay on Benjamin Franklin was written by Antoinette Nemia, a 12-year-old sixth grade pupil at Crocker School. Five dollars went to her for her achievement.

First in the essays on the "Birth of America's Freedom" was an effort by Judith Reginelli, who is 13 and a student in the eighth grade at Colma School. Her reward amounted to $7.50.

Other winners in the Benjamin Franklin essay contest included 12-year-old John Durando and his classmate, Barbara Bianchini, both 12-year-old sixth graders at Crocker School, who tied for second place and were awarded $2.50.

Another deadlock resulted for the third-place Americanism Certificate prize. Marguerita Harris, 12, grade six at Colma School, and Linda Ponig, 11, fourth grade at Benjamin Franklin, both won the prizes.

In the "Birth of America's Freedom" essay contest, second prize of five dollars went to Penny Alquist, a 14 - year - old Colma School eighth grader. Third, an Americanism Certificate, was given to Irene Taylor, 12, grade seven at Colma.

Judging the students' efforts were Joseph Lewkowitz, school board chairman; Vincent Murphy, postmaster, and Roy Hurlbert, news staff, Marchbanks Publications.

Wife Raps 'Take-It-Or-Leave-It' Decision For Callan Apartments

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

Tonight I saw justice at work. That is—justice as meted out in the Daly City Council chambers. We thronged those chambers one hundred and fifty strong to protest the rezoning of property adjacent to ours.

We presented our objections, point by point. Then, Councilmen Dennis, St. Clair and Pacelli voted for the rezoning with no discussion whatsoever of these objections. When our representative tried to ask the reasons on which they based their decision, he was very curtly told that the hearing was closed.

We bought property in a home area. We elected men to office whom we expected to protect our interests. We have no quarrel with honest decision—even adverse ones. But surely when the council votes against the wishes of an entire neighborhood vitally affected by their decision, that neighborhood is entitled to know on what that decision was based. To us it seems that even the legality of the rezoning is to be questioned. Since no attempt was even made to prove necessity, convenience or general welfare — the three required points.

If the three councilmen could have taken time to have discussed our objections and given their reasons for overriding our protests, they might at least have avoided some of the bitterness of feeling that now prevails.

Perhaps there is something wrong with the political workings of our community when its elected representatives can make an arbitrary decision like was made Monday night. When the people are given a "take-it-or-leave it" decision with no questions to be asked, with no recourse . . . is this the kind of justice Daly City wants? I wonder?

Yours truly,
Evelyn R Gruenwald

CALLAN DIDN'T PROVE POINTS, READER SAYS

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

At Monday night's city council meeting, regarding the rezoning of a parcel of land north or Vista Grande School and east of Wyandotte avenue from R-1 to R-3, I waited, pencil poised, for the applicant to prove, as legally required, these three points in his favor:

First — necessity; second — convenience, and third—general welfare. I am still waiting for these answers, even though our city council, with a vote of 3 to 2, granted rezoning. This vote was made after confusing the issue with street problems.

Small wonder that a young girl who was present to write about "Democracy in Action," left this parting remark: "Now what do I write?"

Residents Say Callan Verdict 'Cut And Dried'

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

The people of the affected area attended the city council meeting Monday night expecting a fair hearing on the Callan proposal for rezoning, but—

The city ordinance was disregarded, even ignored!

An overflow crowd was present to witness the "miscarriage of justice" that our new mayor, Dennis, Councilman St. Clair and Councilman Pacelli forced upon us. Everything was "cut and dried." All the nasty cliches that are associated with politics were proven to be more than just sayings—but facts.

Worse than our losing our fight was the obvious effect made on the people by the above councilmen and the disdainful remarks made to us on the lack of a fair hearing.

MIDNIGHT RAIDS DAMAGE HOME ON BRUNO AVENUE

Midnight raids have been made on the home of Mrs. Joseph L. Maffei, 91 Bruno avenue, on numerous occasions the past month, according to Daly City police.

As evidence, Mrs. Maffei showed plants and shrubs which have been ripped up from her yard and placed on her front steps, dirt and all.

Also presented were the husks of rotten eggs and the stains which they made on the facade of her house as a result of having been thrown by some unknown person or persons.

Mrs. Maffei said that the malicious damage is suffered about twice a week, always after midnight. She believes it to be the work of adults, but she gave no explanation.

NO REASONS BY MAYOR PAIR CHARGE

Dear Editor:

Monday night at the regular council meeting Edward J. Dennis took over duties as mayor of Daly City, promising to serve the people and qualifying himself for the job by explaining he was in a position to know, having lived here a good part of his life.

What makes his statements so incongruous is the fact that the council Monday night was charged with ruling on the proposed rezoning of the land north of Vista Grande School.

The chambers were completely filled with property owners who reside on the adjacent areas who would be immediately affected, and who had so gathered to protest. After their spokesman had stated their arguments and understandably legitimate ones, which any property owner anywhere in a residential area would question, rebuttal was given by the applicant, T. Callan Inc., which did not enlighten anyone as to what advantage the proposed rezoning would accomplish for us as homeowners.

Council voted 3-2, passing the rezoning, including a "yes" vote by Dennis. He gave no reason for his decision and abruptly dismissed the spokesman for the homeowners group who quite naturally wanted to know why.

For a man who "knows the town and people, having lived here a number of years," it causes one to wonder what he absorbed to dismiss their grievances so flagrantly.

Spot Rezoning, Sand-bagging, Claims Woman

Dear Editor:

"I was one of an overflow crowd that attended the Daly City Council meeting of April 27. The majority of the people attended to hear the council vote on the Callan rezoning of a portion of Abbey Homestead. I was proud to think that I was privileged, as a citizen of this country, to be able to sit in and hear the arguments pro and con with the rest of my fellow Americans.

I was in complete agreement with Mr. McInerney who argued against the rezoning, (even though we were sand bagged, I feel Mr. McInerney did an excellent job) when he said that "spot rezoning" was a detriment to any community and that to get even a change in rezoning, the applicant must prove public necessity, convenience, and general welfare (Ord. 294, Sec. 4.14).

We all felt that the council would be swayed our way by Mr. McInerney's argument. When it came time to vote there was a lot of confusion on the council floor. We were led to believe that we had won, but by some cagey political maneuvering by Councilman Pacelli and Mayor Dennis, the vote came out as they had planned. This, of course, is a disgrace to the community—a total disregard for the people involved in this matter. When you see things like this happen before your eyes, why do they waste their time having a public hearing?

We had heard two weeks before the "so called" hearing that the vote would go just the way it did. Being only a layman in politics, I felt that if they heard our strong arguments they would consider our stand. It is just too bad that there is so much collusion in politics.

'No Homeowner Can Feel Secure Here'

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

Last week we called to the attention of Daly City residents the fact that if one builder could negate our zoning laws, no homeowner could feel secure.

The travesty made of justice and the mockery made of city ordinances at the Monday city council meeting make the above premise a fact!

May the voters keep this in mind when Mayor Dennis, and Councilmen St. Clair and Pacelli come up for re-election.

Most sincerely,

'PARADOX' FOR MAY 19 ELECTION: VOTE 'NO' TO KEEP SALES TAX

(Editor's Note: The following article on sales tax was submitted for publication by members of the city council of Daly City.)

Daly City voters face the peculiar situation on May 19th in which they will be asked to vote NO to keep or maintain a measure that has been beneficial to the city.

This is a result of the wording of the special election ballot proposition on which city voters will be asked to decide. It reads:

"Shall Ordinances Nos. 463 and 464 of the city of Daly City, which imposes a 1c sales and use tax in this city, be repealed?"

The choice is simply:

YES to repeal.

NO to retain.

This is the only issue on the city ballot. It was placed there by action of the city council in order to give the people an opportunity to decide whether the penny sales tax, in force during the past year, should be continued.

But strangely, the city council will not be compelled to abolish the sales tax even if a majority votes for repeal. The reason for this is that the sales tax measure was adopted legally by majority vote of the city council and it is not subject to referendum.

"But the council will keep faith with the people," said Councilmen Frank Pacelli and Joseph Verducci.

"The voters will decide."

They added:

"Of course we believe developments of the past year have proven that the council acted wisely in adopting the sales tax. It has been the city's salvation—allowing us to set up a capital improvements fund for needed library, fire and police facilities and at the same time reducing city property taxes."

The two veteran councilmen who serve as co-chairmen of the committee to retain the sales tax, are calling on voters to:

"Maintain Daly City's progress. Retain the sales tax.

"Vote NO on repeal."

Four Daly City PTA Women Visit Main California Disaster Office

The doors of the California Disaster Office in Sacramento were opened last week to four local ladies who have indicated an unusual interest in the operations of that state function.

The quartet was composed of three members of James L. Snell PTA, which serves Garden Village School in Broadmoor, and Miss Marjorie Tobias, principal of Vista Mar School in Westlake.

Participating from Broadmoor were Mrs. H. Cliff Warner, Snell's Civil Defense chairman; Mrs. Jack Bertken, last year's CD chairman; and Mrs. Kenneth Gillespie, unit president. Miss Tobias was with the trio as a representative of the JESD, appointed by Superintendent H. Z. Weibel.

The women were greeted by the CDO director, Harold G. Robinson, and General Harry Van Wyk, deputy CDO director, and enjoyed a personal tour of the precautionary installation.

Of especial interest was an inspection of the communications center where that department's chief, T. J. Kelly, explained the intricacies of keeping the state informed and in touch in time of disaster. It was from Kelly's office, two days after the localites' visit, that portions of the national Conalrad practice (when all commercial broadcasting ceased for one half hour) emanated.

Of great interest also was the radiation detection section where the women were escorted by Charles Rainey, that department's chief of operations. Mesdames Bertken, Warner and Gillespie had, just one week earlier, completed a course of instruction in the use of radiological meters — the same class sponsored by Daly City to train approximately 40 male city employees. As qualified radiological meter operators the three will, in case of a radiation alert, report their findings to persons who will ultimately relay such information to Rainey's specialists in Sacramento.

The unique journey was the result of correspondence between the Snell representatives and the CDO evolving from the PTA's successful mock evacuation of Garden Village School's enrollees last December.

The evacuation, first of its kind in either San Mateo or San Francisco County, has been praised by CD officials and has prompted the Jefferson Elementary School District to suggest that all local PTAs investigate taking similar action towards emergency planning.

ARE WE TRYING TO GET OUT OF THE PASSENGER BUSINESS?

Some people seem to think we don't want to run passenger trains.

This is a matter of great concern to us because running trains is our business and we expect to be running them for a long time.

So we want you to know just how we feel about the important passenger side of our business:

1 We want to run passenger trains that you need and use. We welcome passenger business and we hope more people will ride our trains.

2 We want our passenger trains to be good trains. We think our passenger service is as good as any in the country... and we intend to keep it that way.

3 We feel, however, that it is sensible to limit our service to trains and schedules which many people need and use, and to discontinue those which few people use and which are obviously no longer needed.

More and more people are traveling by automobile and by air, fewer by train. But we have not been sitting idly by while the public's travel habits changed. We've spent millions of dollars in the last ten years on new passenger train equipment, and more millions promoting our service.

In spite of our efforts, some of our trains have been carrying very few passengers.

We think it is better for everybody—for you and for us—to reduce or eliminate poorly patronized train service which causes heavy losses. Such losses become a burden on freight shippers and industry, and impair our ability to serve this great and growing Western region.

John Blake Is Westmoor High's Pupil Of Month

The Industrial Education Department of Westmoor High School has given the outstanding student award for the month of April to John Blake. John is presently enrolled in both auto shop and mechanical drawing.

In mechanical drawing, John is presently engaged in working on a complete set of house plans—7 drawings—which he designed himself. He has built a model of this house.

In Auto Shop, John has undertaken the job of "ironing" out the wrinkles in his 1951 car. A few weeks ago he was involved in a minor accident in which his auto was hit from behind. The job of repairing the damage would have been an undertaking for any journeyman.

Cancer Society Needs $ To Save All-Age Victims

Daily calls for help are received at the Cancer Society office for men, women and children stricken with cancer who live in San Mateo county. And daily help is given.

Complete hospital room equipment, so necessary to a cancer patient, is promptly dispatched to their homes on the Coastside, in Daly City, South San Francisco, and through the south county.

Provisions are made to obtain nursing care. The Cancer Society literally pays monthly drug bills amounting to hundreds of dollars. Other aid is given.

"Many cases we can help within the limits of our funds, but because our funds are limited, we cannot underwrite the complete cost of cancer care. As we all know, this runs into thousands of dollars for each individual," explains Cancer Society President Mrs. Albert A. Hedge, and Westlake Chairman Mrs. Gordon Dettner.

"It is to enhance our funds, and to meet the $90,000 goal for this year, that we are now conducting a month-long fund and educational drive. Much more help is needed to meet these goals," she explains.

Campfire Girls Will Hunt Gold In High Sierras

San Francisco Camp Fire Girls have been rapidly signing up for their own "Gold Rush" to Camp Caniya in the High Sierra. Chartered Greyhound buses will carry the new '49-ers to their camp — a far cry from the pack trips of the original '49-ers, though the country itself has changed little.

Camp Caniya is near Tahoe National Forest in the Downieville area. This year campers will visit some of the ghost towns and mines that once were the bustling high-country camps of the Gold Rush days. As part of their study of natural resources, the Camp Fire's '49-ers will even pan for gold.

This "Gold Rush" program marks the San Francisco Council's special celebration of the 49th anniversary of the founding of the Camp Fire Girls. Many activities will also tie in with the national Camp Fire conservation project.

The special Gold Rush study trips are just part of a camp schedule that includes a wide range of sports and campcrafts, swimming in the new pool, hiking through some of the loveliest country in the Sierras. The whole program will be outlined to parents of new campers at meetings on May 21 and May 26, from 7:45 to 9 p.m. at the Camp Fire Clubhouse, 325 Arguello.

Three sessions are scheduled for Camp Caniya this summer: Session I, June 23—July 6; Session II, July 10—July 23; Session III, July 27—August 9. Registrations are limited, but all sessions are still open to a few more enrollments. For information, call SK 2-2600, or write San Francisco Council of Camp Fire Girls, 325 Arguello blvd., San Francisco 18.

HEADING the Fashion Show this Saturday, a part of the Westlake Spring Flower Show, are (left to right): Mrs. David Schwimmer, fashion show chairman, 77 Westdale; Mrs. Jack Rauch, in charge of fashion models, 75 Oceanside, and Mrs. Edward Raymond, in charge of arrangements, 194 Garden Lane, Colma. The event is sponsored by the YWCA.

ANTHONY Lemos (left), 187 Wilshire, has been named chairman of rose committee of the Westlake Spring Flower Show, April 27 through May 2. He is a member of the Daly City Garden Club and the San Mateo Rose society. With Lemos, inspecting the show's theme girl poster, are Mrs. Clinton Horn of San Mateo, district director of District 4-B California's Garden Clubs, Inc., who are sponsoring the show, and Mrs. Joseph J. Mattus of San Carlos, who will head the horticulture division of the Westlake show. Mrs. Mattus is a member of the Garden Section of the Redwood City Women's Club. The event will be held at Westlake Shopping Center. All flower growers or arrangers interested in competing for cash awards, trophies and ribbons are invited to contact the Flower Show's headquarters, suite 209, 375 South Mayfair avenue, Westlake Shopping Center. Number is PL 5-1632.

W'LAKE SPRING FLOWER SHOW FREE SPECTACLE

Westlake's Spring Flower Show officially opened Monday night with a reception by the sponsors for civic and business leaders.

The show, which continues all this week, is open to the public without charge. Flower arrangements are to be seen in store windows throughout the shopping center, with cut flowers and horitcultural displays in the various breezeways.

Outstanding among the artistic arrangements are the invitational displays (non-competitive) in the J. C. Penney Company windows, with an Oriental motif; the driftwood display in the Franklin store window, and the invitational display at Richter's.

A completely new show will be given this Thursday when the second period of the production commences. New exhibits and new arrangements will be brought in. The show is open Wednesday and Friday nights until 9 p.m., and on Saturday afternoon there will be special entertainment.

With the exception of the invitational arrangements, all exhibitors are competing for cash prizes, trophies and awards.

Westmoor Stages Three One-Act Plays Next Week

Three top prize-winning one-act plays are to be presented to the public on the night of Friday, May 8, when the Westmoor High School Little Theater actors take to the boards again.

These plays have been favorites of dramatic groups and public alike because of their unusual presentation of real-life characters in believable situations. Directors choose them for content and dramatic festival material with the knowledge that the material gives their students the greatest challenge to their imaginations.

"Minor Miracle" is a short sketch containing four male characters. Adrift in a becalmed sea, the better and basic qualities of the men catch the audience in a breath-taking sequence that ends on a happy note.

Appearing are student actors Tony Sensi, Rich Gomez, Jack Kyle, and Dave Kitchen.

"Balcony Scene," while taking place in the balcony of a church where the funeral of a young man is being conducted, offers a variety of people in their opinions of the deceased, who is there in spirit only. The cast includes Jim Norton, Steve Doiron, Carroll Berggdahl, Sandra Salo, Dick Vogl, Jerry Sigler, Tony Miley, and Pat Wentzel.

Thornton Wilder's "Happy Journey" is a classic of its kind. Here again, simplicity is the keynote of this folksy comedy. A typical mother with her family is taking a short trip to see her married daughter. What happens along the way gives the play its ribtickling humor.

Mike Smith, the stage manager who takes a minor part in the play, guides Terry Robison, Glen Hilton, Mike Silberstein, Robin Goldman, and Pat Brice through the simple maze of the drama.

All three plays are presented against a simple backdrop of neutral gray, putting the emphasis on the acting and characterizations. "Minor Miracle," because of its locale, requires special lighting which will be done by Jim Skinner. John Bernstein is stage manager for all three productions. Admission is $1 for adults, 75 and 50 cents for students.

City Officials Among Hundreds Viewing Girl 'Scouts In Action'

Mrs. Helen Duke, general chairman for the Daly City-Colma Girl Scouts' third annual "Scouts-in-Action" show Saturday in War Memorial Building, deemed the affair a huge success.

Despite rain, a capacity crowd representing 900 Girl Scouts in 50 troops attended the demonstration and exhibition.

Mayor Micheal DeBernardi spoke words of praise on the organization's work and introduced City Manager George Watts, Mayor-elect Edward Dennis and his family, and Councilman Francis Pacelli. Councilman Bob St. Clair attended later.

Among other notable guests were Mrs. Margaret Jones, president of the North San Mateo Council, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stites.

The affair started and ended with a colorful flag ceremony by representatives from all parts of the area. In it were: Susan Azzaro, Barbara Bachell, Linda Baciocco, Willa Barnes, Cathy Bogdan, Betty Brown, Colleen Cassidy, Patricia Coughlin, Diana Davison, Barbara Edgeman, Patty Frasu, Carol Freedman, Christine Hansen, Constance Henderson, Dale Heneise, Elizabeth Henry, Lynn Hillman, Susan House, Dawn Kleveshal, Dorothy Lahey, Linda Larios, Susan McKinney, Jerelyn Magnusson, Kathy Matthews, Sheryl Quanstrom, Joann Spinetti, Darlene Steward, Judith Stone, Joyce Thrush, Nancy Vogl, Hazel Walter, Kay Wisler and Mary Wright.

Mrs. Barbara Senkir, a committee member, was in charge of the flag ceremony. Loretta Durham, Senior Mariner Scout, was master of ceremonies. Loretta Durham, Dolores Spinetti and Fran Robinson led the audience in Scout songs. District chairman Mrs. Verona Williams presented awards to poster contest winners.

Mrs. Duke's committee included Mesdames Merle Josselyn, physical setup; Gloria Silva, hospitality and posters; Barbara Senkir, exhibits and program, and Verona Williams, advisor.

Police Stumped By Confusing Tales Told By Vagrant

In desperation, Daly City Police Officer Matthew Murray finally booked Roger Flood, alias Harold Clarence Wooten, after he was discovered roaming on the grounds of the Lake Merced Nursery Tuesday night.

Nobody knows where the jailed man lives, and least of all, it seems, does Flood.

Upon being questioned at the nursery, Wooten told police he was an ex-burglar tracking down job leads. In a moment he changed his story to say that he was looking for a girl at Tone's Bar-B-Q.

Murray drove him there only to find the establishment closed. Then, says Murray, a half dozen other confusing stories were poured in his ear.

He then took Flood to the station where he heard the man deny all his previous tales and launch out on new ones.

The outcome? Wooten or Flood was booked on a vagrancy charge.

Man 'Bleaches' Car In Parking Dispute

Bleach was thrown on the car of Dolores Del Campo, she told police here, when she refused to move it from in front of a legal parking spot on Bellevue avenue.

According to her story, someone came out of the house in front of which she had parked and ordered her to move the vehicle. When she refused, this person went into the house and re-emerged with the bleach which he dumped on her car.

Garden Village Glee Club Sings For Snell PTA

The gay sound of happy children singing resounded in the Garden Village School multi-use room last Tuesday as that institution's Glee Club entertained at th April membership meeting of the James L. Snell PTA.

The musical group, composed of fourth grade boys and girls, was directed by Mrs. Patricia Hackett, music and vocal instructor for the Jefferson Elementary School District.

A large group of parents and friends were on hand to hear the choral offerings and to witness a special flag ceremony presented by Mrs. Otha Kinsey's kindergarten enrollees. Aiding the little folk were representatives of Den 1 of the Snell-sponsored Cub Pack 259.

Assuming for the evening a somewhat unusual format, the business portion of the PTA meeting agenda followed the program, in deference to the tender ages of the student participants.

Honored guest of the session was Mrs. J. B. Mills, president of the 17th District of the CCPT.

Outlining briefly the enviable history of PTA success in the United States during the 62 years that the child welfare group has been in existence, Mrs. Mills reiterated the national objects of the organization.

Concluding the evening Mrs. Mills installed the persons elected at the March membership meeting to serve as officers during the 1959-60 year.

Refreshments were served by first grade room mothers under the guidance of Mrs. Larry Phillips, hospitality chairman.

ROAD TO THE PENNANT?

Westmoor Faces 'Comeback' Tribe Friday In Biggie

Only one game out of first place in a real crazy race, Westmoor's varsity baseballers invade Jefferson this Friday afternoon for a Peninsula League argument that could mean a pennant for the victor.

The Rams, sophomorish and minus three regulars again last Friday, dropped their third straight as Mills got three runs in the last inning down south. Score was 4-3.

Jefferson took its third straight after four losses by bumping South City, 4-1, behind soph Don Staff. SSF leads the mixed-up pack with a 5-2 mark. Westmoor, Burlingame, Capuchino and Hillsdale are all 4-3, while Jeff and Mills are 3-4. Only sure thing is that San Mateo, 1-6, is out of the title picture.

Westmoor dumped Jeff, 6-3, in their first encounter this year.

The Rams missed shortstop Dan O'Connor and second baseman Jim Heick again last week via the flu. Also absent was righthander Bob Goodwin, whose pitching is a "must" if Westmoor is to come close. All three were still ailing early this week, along with leadoff third sacker Billy Hix, another top sophomore.

The Rams, with Dave Simons on the hill, led Mills 3-1 in the third frame Friday. A freak single—one of three Viking hits in the seventh, sparked the Mills' rally. The winners got to Simons for only five hits all told. Westmoor got five off Ed Ticoulat—two by soph Terry Christman.

Coach Rod Losberger used catcher Tom McHugh at shortstop, Phil Fair at second and Eddie Walthard behind the plate.

Loss by Simons gave the senior a 2-2 league record. Goodwin, 1-0, will go against Jeff this Friday at 3:15 if he's healthy.

Soph Barry Krohn, southpaw rightfielder, leads the Ram batters with a hefty .350 average and eight runs batted in. O'Connor is .357 for five games and Heick is .286. Christman is .240 and consistent in the clutch.

Biggest disappointment is McHugh, power-boy pro prospect. He has only one hit in his last 10 at-bats and is .250 for the season.

Next week the Rams host San Mateo and travel to Burlingame.

STAFF HUMBLES LOOP LEADERS FOR JEFF, 4-1

Surprising Don Staff, a smart sophomore, put Jeff back in the Peninsula League varsity baseball title chase Friday with a four-hit, 4-1 win over tough South San Francisco, the loop leader.

It was Staff's third straight triumph for the Tribe in his one-man mound crusade to keep Steve Mezzera's team in the running. Don aided his own cause again with two key hits. His mates got eight other hits to continue their reputation as the league's most potent club at the plate.

Roy Reitz, the Peninsula's best first baseman, led the attack against lefty Dick Vaughan with two hits. Shortstop J. B. Berry and rightfielder Ron Kalinin also collected two hits apiece.

South City's run came in the first inning. Jeff tallied once in the second, twice in the sixth, and again in the last frame.

Young Staff probably will go against Westmoor this Friday afternoon at Jeff, starting at 3:15 o'clock. Next Tuesday the Indians are at Hillsdale and Friday they play here against Mills.

As long as Staff is healthy and the regulars continue to clobber the ball, Mezzera's team will be knocking on the door. The race is wide open. Seven of the eight league teams could win the flag.

20 New Lanes At W'lake Bowl Due By July 1

Tentative completion date for 20 new lanes at Westlake Bowl is July 1, according to Jim Grealish, manager of Johnny Swanson's popular plant.

He said the new lanes will be reserved exclusively for open play bowlers while the present 32 lanes will be assigned to league play.

Included in the expansion plans is a men's locker room for storage of balls, bags and shoes. The concourse of the new addition will provide an enlarged bowling supply shop.

CAR ACCIDENT BENCHES STAR JEFF ATHLETE

Peter A. Garcia, popular Jefferson High School athlete, may be out of action for the rest of the year due to injuries he suffered when his car rolled over after skidding on the Chinese Cemetery road.

Accompanying the 18-year-old youth was Miss Erna Mary Crickos, 17, 353 Cain street, San Bruno.

According to Broadmoor police, Garcia, who lives at 71 Hillcrest drive, sustained severe injuries to his lower back and ribs. John Mongan, Jeff High principal, said Garcia's spleen had to be removed.

Garcia's passenger also hurt her lower back, her left foot and had facial abrasions.

Both were transferred from Junipero Serra Hospital, where they were initially taken — Garcia to Community Hospital and Miss Crickos to Peninsula Hospital in Burlingame.

A senior, Pete twice won All-Peninsula first string honors in football, played varsity basketball and ran the 440 and relay for the track team.

He earlier was named to play in the West Bay-East Bay 20-30 charity football game this summer in San Francisco.

Peninsula League coaches regard Pete as one of the finest college grid prospects from this area in many years.

RAM RELAYERS TAKE TWO-MILE AT MARTINEZ

Westmoor splashed to a 9:25.7 two-mile relay vistory Saturday in the weather-dampened Martinez Relays won by Richmond High.

The Rams from Daly City had hoped for a showdown with Palo Alto in the event. Both squads are shooting at the national mark of 7:56, held by Bellflower High of Los Angeles. Palo Alto has a 7:56.6 to its credit and Westmoor 8:04—best marks in the United States.

The winning Ram unit Saturday consisted of Bruce Ryner, Dave Dunbar, Jed Cyr and Lanny Buccelli.

Jeff High was rained out of the shotput relay and failed to tally in the discus. The Indians were hurt by the absence of sprint leader Len Lamendola and half-miler Pete Garcia.

Garcia was hospitalized last week by a car accident and is out for the season. Lamendola has a sore foot.

Ram Tracksters Down Indian Varsity 63-50

Westmoor's varsity tracksters rambled past city rival Jefferson last Thursday, 63-50, to put the Rams and Indians in a tie for second behind unbeaten and Peninsula League leading San Mateo.

Coach Ernie Ribera's Rams, with nonesuch half-miler Dave Dunbar ready for records, met Capuchino early this week and this Friday host South City, Riordan, Serra and Jeff in another warmup.

Westmoor will be the site of the Peninsula League trials on May 5 and the championship meet on May 8.

Dunbar, who sat out the Jefferson engagement, has a 1:53.3 880 to his credit—best in the country. Observers feel he 5-7, 140-pound senior can break the national record of 1:52.2 by the time the state meet rolls around on May 29 at Bakersfield.

Distance aces Bruce Ryner, Rich Blakemore and sprinter Mike Joseph, along with hurdler Rich Burnham and Ram field specialists made the margin of difference against Bob Watt's Jeff aggregation. The Rams and Indians are both 3-1 in dual meets and capable of tieing San Mateo, 4-0, in the championship affair.

Len Lamendola of Jeff captured the 100 and 220 dashes Friday and Watt's relay unit won in 1:33.8.

Joseph took the 440 ahead of Jed Cyr and Tel Salor in 52.5. Ryner nipped Felix Valdez in the half-mile and Lanny Buccelli was third.

Burnham outlasted Art Banos and Jim Drake in the high hurdles and Tom Dake of the Rams won the 180 lows over Burnham and Banos in 21.6. Blakemore captured a 4:31.3 mile ahead of Jeff's Dan Whitney and Charles Rivera.

A 5-8 leap by Gary Molossi won the high jump and Westmoor's Roger Johnson took the broadjump with a 19-9 effort over Dan Vogl and Sal Blas. Bob Veneditti or Jeff annexed the pole vault over Vogl and Mike Pechina with an 11-6 climb.

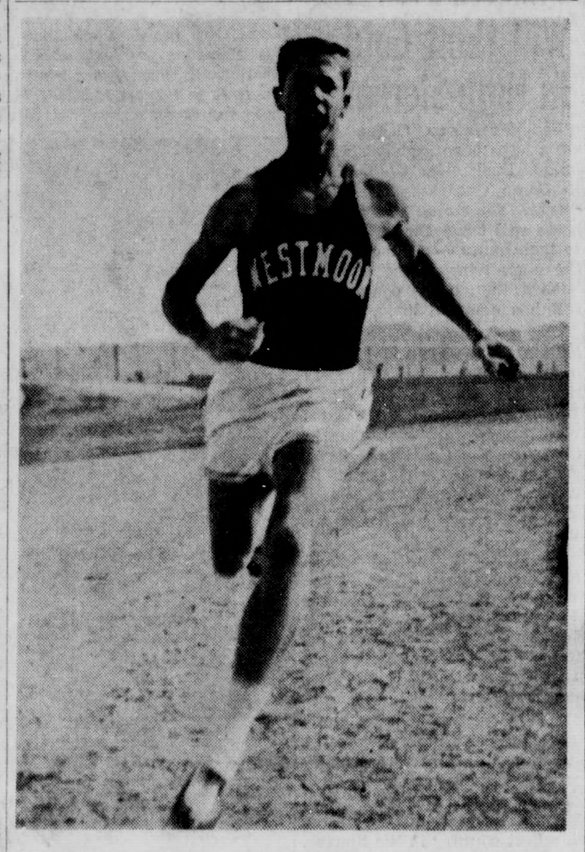
Jim Drake of Jeff bested Jerry Evans and Bob Nielson in the shot with a 47-5 and Larry Schoenfeldt and Bob Roller were one-two in the discus. Winning toss was 130-10½.

Westmoor's B division won, 72-40, but Jeff took the C's, 67 5/6 to 18 1/6.

Willie White established a Jeff record in the B's 75 high hurdles in 9.9.

Triple winner again for Jeff in the C's was Ray Javier. He was first in the 75 and 150 sprints and broke a school mark with a 47-10 shot effort.

For Westmoor's lightweights, Barry Langberg sizzled with wins in the 75 and 150 and the broadjump. Eddie Berg took the shot and discus and led the winning 440 relay in its 46-flat performance.



TIMERS will have their clocks synchronized on Westmoor High's Dave Dunbar this Friday when the Daly City half-mile ace makes another assault on the national record in the 880-yard run. Coach Ernie Ribera thinks the determined senior will set a new American mark before the season is out. Dunbar presently has the fastest half-mile time in the United States this year.

DON'T CHANGE TIRES ON THE ROAD...

MAKE YOUR TIRES PUNCTURE-SEALING

Add the safety of puncture-sealing to the tubeless tires now on your car. New puncture-sealant prevents sudden air loss even after puncturing object is ejected from the tread of your tire.

Changing tires on the roadside is always dangerous. This dangerous procedure can be eliminated by servicing tubeless tires with AIR GUARD, the "weightless" sealant.

The most recent technological advance from United States Rubber's Research Laboratories is a "weightless sealant" called AIR GUARD. This sealant, when placed in tubeless tires, ends the danger of roadside tire changing due to tread punctures.

AIR GUARD makes any tubeless tire equal in mobile puncture safety to the highest priced puncture-sealing tires available today. All tubeless tires have puncture-sealing characteristics as long as the puncturing object remains in the tread.

Field tests proved, however, that tubeless tires serviced with AIR GUARD maintain safe, drivable air pressure for 48 hours after puncturing object has been thrown out.

At highway speeds, tires have a tendency to throw out the puncturing object, leaving a hole in the tread. Once the puncturing object is ejected, air loss is sudden and dangerous. With AIR GUARD in your tires you do not experience sudden air loss because AIR GUARD rushes in and plugs the hole left by the ejected puncturing object.

Safe, drivable air pressure is maintained for 48 hours. Thereafter, you simply bring air pressure back to normal. You can keep this up for hundreds of miles until permanent repair can be conveniently made.

All punctured tires eventually require permanent repairs, even the most expensive puncture-sealing types. AIR GUARD permits repairing in the regular manner; and, unlike other sealants, has no adverse effect upon the tire's performance. AIR GUARD does not affect the handling characteristics or riding qualities of your car ... will never cause out-of-balance condition.

AIR GUARD is an exclusive product of U.S. Rubber Company. This puncture-sealing service is rendered in less than an hour for all five tires. Come in today and add the safety of AIR GUARD to the tubeless tires now on your car.
